

FAIR AND SQUARE

This pattern was designed to help you use stash fabrics, especially 5" squares. However, we used this pattern with an entire line of fabrics, Winsome by Benartex, with a very pleasing outcome! Try it either way. We have provided yardage and cutting options if you would like to use a particular line of fabric.

Made from 63 – 9" blocks (Finished 8 1/2")
- (2) Inner Border
Made from 2 1/2" strips (Finished 2")
- (3) Outer Border
Made from 4 1/2" strips (Finished 4")

Make 63 – 9" Blocks (Finishes at 8 1/2")

Chain piece a 2 1/2" rectangle to each side of 63 – 5" squares. Press seams away from center.

Chain piece a 2 1/2" x 9" rectangle to the top and bottom of the block. Press seams away from center.

Assemble Quilt Body

Lay completed blocks out in 9 rows of 7 blocks. Rotate every other block a quarter turn. See quilt diagram. When you are satisfied with fabric placement, label the first block in each row to keep the rows in order. Sew blocks together to make each row. Press seams in "odd numbered rows" in one direction and seams in "even numbered rows" in the opposite direction. Sew rows together. Row seams can all be pressed in any direction you choose.

Add Inner Borders Press seams toward inner border.

Cut 8 strips 2 1/2" x WOF. Piece to make 2 strips, 2 1/2" x 77". Sew one to each side. Piece remaining strips to make 2 strips, each 2 1/2" x 64". Sew one to top and one to bottom.

Add Outer Border Press seams toward outer border.

Cut 9 strips 4 1/2" wide. Piece to make 2 strips 4 1/2" x 81". Sew one strip to each side. Piece remaining strips to make 2 strips 4 1/2" x 72". Sew one strip each to top and bottom.

Binding

This quilt requires approximately 334" of binding. Join scrap or precut 3" strips end to end with bias seams until you have 334" of continuous length. Fold in half lengthwise with wrong sides together and press. Sew to right side of quilt with a scant 1/2" seam allowance, mitering corners. Join ends with a bias seam. Turn binding over seam allowance and hand stitch in place on back of quilt.
